

Anxiety Recovery Retreat

Terms & Conditions

1. The Anxiety Recovery Retreat under the auspices of Lifewise Publishing Limited (LPL) is an educational centre for information training and education, not a medical or therapeutic facility.
2. The Retreat (LPL) takes no medical responsibility for the Client. Charles Linden accepts no personal or therapeutic liability or responsibility for the Client.
3. All purchases and bookings are final and there are no refunds; except for medical reasons authorised by a Letter from a Medical Doctor; contingent upon the Client providing a minimum of 72 hours advance notice of cancellation before scheduled arrival date of Retreat commencement, LPL may issue a credit note which allows the Client's booking fees paid in to be used toward a future booking for the next available space.
4. All booking fees must be paid and cleared into account in advance of arrival at the Retreat.
5. The Client understands that if Charles Linden, due to unforeseen circumstances, cannot be in attendance at the Retreat, the Retreat will still go ahead but that arrangements will be made for one on one appointments to be made at a future date. Linden Method Specialists will be attending and available.
6. All sales are in British Pounds Sterling and will be calculated into the current currency exchange rates of USA Dollars ($), Euros (€) or other local currencies.
7. LPL reserves the right to cancel any Retreat at any time and return all monies in full to the Client, the value of the returned monies not to exceed the total amount paid by the Client.
8. LPL strongly advise that you take out travel insurance. LPL shall not be responsible for any costs or charges related to air flights or any travel in the event of cancellation by either party. In the event that the client is not accepted into the program by LPL, all monies paid in will be returned to the client.